

God the Father

Make a list of all the fathers you can think of from television. Then, next to each name, put a plus sign if you think he's a good example of a father and a minus sign if you think he's not a good example of a father.

What would you consider to be the key traits of a good father?

THE MANY FACES OF GOD'S FATHERHOOD:

God is a father to _____
-Exodus 4:22-23

God is a father to _____
-1 John 4:9-10

God is a father to _____
-John 1:12-13

BUT WHAT KIND OF FATHER IS HE?:

Considering Matthew 7:9-11, James 1:16-18, and Romans 8:15-17, I would describe God the Father as:

REFLECTION:

Turn to 1 John. Once there, read 2:28-3:10. How does John say a child of God should live? Does your life reflect this?

Take a few moments and write out a prayer to God, reflecting on what you've learned and been challenged by in this lesson.

God the Father

Make a list of all the fathers you can think of from television. Then, next to each name, put a plus sign if you think he's a good example of a father and a minus sign if you think he's not a good example of a father.

What would you consider to be the key traits of a good father?

THE MANY FACES OF GOD'S FATHERHOOD:

God is a father to _____
-Exodus 4:22-23

God is a father to _____
-1 John 4:9-10

God is a father to _____
-John 1:12-13

BUT WHAT KIND OF FATHER IS HE?:

Considering Matthew 7:9-11, James 1:16-18, and Romans 8:15-17, I would describe God the Father as:

REFLECTION:

Turn to 1 John. Once there, read 2:28-3:10. How does John say a child of God should live? Does your life reflect this?

Take a few moments and write out a prayer to God, reflecting on what you've learned and been challenged by in this lesson.
